Today's Security and Compliance Challenges

Today, businesses face unprecedented challenges in protecting their data and adhering to an ever-evolving regulatory environment.

Escalating Cyber Threats

With cyber-attacks increasing by 50% year over year, businesses are under constant threat, emphasizing the need for advanced security measures to protect critical data assets. (Source: Check Point Research, 2021)

Rising Cost of Data Breaches

The average cost of a data breach has soared to $4.24 million per incident, marking the highest average cost in the 17-year history of the report. It underlines the financial impact of inadequate security practices. (Source: IBM, 2021)

Complex Regulatory Environment

Over 200 updates to regulatory information daily across global jurisdictions challenge businesses to stay compliant, highlighting the complexity of the regulatory environment.
